

ISO 9001 Lead Implementer Certification Training Course

Overview

This training will teach students how to develop the required proficiency to maintain and support an organization in executing and administering a Quality Management System based on ISO 9001:2008. This training is fully attuned with ISO 9004 guidance's (Managing for the sustained success of an organization - A quality management approach).